ELSEVIER INC, with offices at 225 Wyman Street, Waltham, MA 02451, United States (the "Publisher") has invited A.N. Author at author@email.com (the "Contributor") to write and prepare a contribution provisionally entitled Article Title (the "Contribution") to be included in the Online Reference Database Reference Module in Life Sciences (the "Module"). Your contribution shall be part of Encyclopedia of Science, Second Edition (the "Work") edited by A.N. Editor (herein defined as the "Editor"). The Work is planned to be included in the Module in online format, prior to or in conjunction with, publication of the Work. This Agreement between you and Elsevier Inc. regarding your contribution outlines our respective obligations and rights.

The Work is described in more detail in the Aims and Scope, available at (the "Aims and Scope") if available.

1. Manuscript

The Contributor shall deliver a complete and final manuscript, in appropriate form, as noted on and according to the Aims and Scope and the Instructions to Authors, available at (the "Instructions to Authors"), no later than 04/03/2018 (the "Submission Date") unless an alternate deadline has been agreed.

The Contributor will correct and return all proofs to the Publisher within 1 (one) week of receipt. The Contributor shall make no changes to the proofs, including changes to illustrations, other than correcting typographical errors or making changes requested by the Publisher. In the event that the Contributor is unable promptly to correct and return proofs, the Editor or the Publisher may make the corrections they deem necessary and the Work may be published without benefit of contributor corrections.

You confirm that your contribution is original to you, has not been previously published, and you have the right to grant to us the rights described above; you confirm that your contribution does not contain any material that infringes any third party rights or is harmful to the user. You also confirm that to the best of your knowledge your contribution contains no libelous, unlawful or otherwise actionable matter. Further, you also confirm that you are familiar with all applicable conflicts of interest and outside compensation laws and regulations as well as policies and rules of your employer or institution (if applicable), and that your acceptance of this appointment (including the acceptance of any complimentary copies of the Work), and the terms of this Agreement and your performance under this Agreement is and will be in compliance with those laws, regulations, policies and rules.

Should any materials in the contribution be the work of others, said materials must be properly credited, and you agree to obtain and pay for any necessary grant of permission for use of others' materials, as well as any patient consents and releases. You shall also deliver with the manuscript a permissions log to be completed in accordance with the instructions provided by us together with copies of all the permission grant letters. We shall supply you with the permissions log template.

If we decide not to proceed with publication of your contribution, we will revert all rights to you. We reserve the right to revise the contribution if required to render it suitable for publication, including the substitution of borrowed material.

2. Payment

Where authors can accept payment the following applies.

Upon publication of the Work containing your contribution, we will pay the lead author of each contribution to the Work an honorarium of $100. The Publisher may require certain government tax forms as well as internal Publisher Payee forms to be completed prior to making any payments, and you agree to complete and return any such forms as separately instructed.

Upon publication of the Work containing your contribution, we will provide each lead contributor to the Work with twelve (12) months access to Elsevier's Reference Module in Life Sciences module, in which his or her contribution appears.
The Publisher shall provide an electronic offprint of the Contribution in PDF format to the Contributor. If there are multiple co-Contributors, the electronic offprint shall be sent to the first-named Contributor.

The Publisher agrees to sell to the Contributor, for personal use and not for resale, books published in print form by the Publisher at a discount of thirty percent (30%) off the retail price, excluding Major Reference Works which will be charged at ten (10%) off the retail price.

3. Rights
To facilitate publication of your contribution, you assign to us the copyright and all other rights in and to the contribution. This assignment of rights means that you have given us the exclusive right to publish and reproduce the contribution, or any part of the contribution, in print and all other forms of media, in any edition, revision, or other form, in all languages, throughout the world, and the right to license others to do the same. We may list your name and affiliation for credit, promotional and advertising purposes associated with your contribution in such manner which, in our judgment, fairly reflects your contribution. We may, but we are under no obligation to request your participation in any subsequent editions of the Work, and we may use all or any of your contribution in any such revisions and/or editions or in any other manner or form without additional compensation other than expressly provided in this Agreement.

As the author of your contribution you may publish a summary of the contribution on your personal or your institution's website and may make copies of up to 10% of the contribution for your classroom use. You also retain the right to draw upon the information and materials contained in the contribution for your continued professional and educational use, such as for classroom and meeting lectures and in the preparation of journal articles or book chapters. We do, however, require that in all cases you appropriately cite the Work and the Publisher as the copyright holder of the contribution.

Author Instructions
The Instructions to Authors are available via the Help tab in the top right-hand corner of your EPS homescreen.
