Benefits

- ✓ Expanded Readership
SSRN invites over 3.5 million registered users to subscribe to your Research Paper Series at no cost.
- ✓ Showcased Research
A branded eJournal & series page that draws researchers to your Research Paper Series.
- ✓ Targeted Metrics
Qualitative & quantitative metrics which track research consumption & measure impact by submission.
- ✓ Networking
Enhanced opportunities for authors to connect, communicate, and collaborate about their research.

Branded Journal Experience

SSRN collaborates with you to assemble your organizationally branded research, making it accessible to our vast community of users.

You have control over the branding & frequency of publication. SSRN alerts our user community inviting them to subscribe to your eJournal, which increases the visibility, readership, & global exposure for your institutes' research.

Most importantly, SSRN provides qualitative & quantitative metrics that go beyond downloads & citations. You have access to a customized dashboard that highlights the institutions that are reading & downloading your research as well as insights associated with the dissemination of your research via social media, blogs, news sources, & policy citations.
